

Up-to-date information!

Where can you find information about the CROP Walk?

Look on the Concord Area CROP Walk's

WEB SITE !

www.concordcrop.org

Look for the following information and publicity materials about the Concord Area CROP Walk:

- Up-to-date information about the walk
- Walk date, time, and place
- Contact information on walk organizers
- List of current CROP board members
- How to register for the walk
- How to obtain sponsor forms
- Picture of winning T-shirt design
- Photo of current youth artist
- Feature news story about youth artist
- Banner Contest registration "Yes" form
- Photos of previous banner entries
- Banner construction and design tips
- Community Service form for school
- 20 Plus Club's "Free T for Me!" rules
- List of Youth Activities at the walk
- Publicity flyers to print out and post
- A map of the route
- Information about:
 - walk support for area hunger programs
 - walk support for Gaining Ground
 - walk support for area food pantries
 - walk support for worldwide hunger aid
 - walk support for disaster relief efforts
 - walk support for worldwide community development projects
- Link to N.E. regional organization
- Link to Church World Service (CWS)
- Link to CROP Walk's On-line pledging

If you don't have a computer, you can find the CROP Walk's web site on the computers at your local public library. Type in the web address www.concordcrop.org.

All materials on the web site are copyrighted by the Concord CROP Walk board of directors and may be copied and printed for non-profit uses related to raising funds for the Concord CROP Walk.